The DSG is hosting a talent show for children and adults with Down syndrome age 6 and older in conjunction with World Down Syndrome Day (March 21, 2012) and we want you!

- Does your child sing, dance, or recite poetry or rhymes?
- Do gymnastics, martial arts, or cheerleading?
- Sing the alphabet?
- Do sports tricks and skills?
- Is your son or daughter part of a group that performs?
- Don't want to perform? Help us by being an usher, greeter, or working concessions.

No one will be turned away- everyone has talent and we want to showcase yours!
There will be a couple of informal practices in early March, but the goal is to have fun!!

Activities and events which take place on World Down Syndrome Day showcase the abilities and accomplishments of persons with Down syndrome and encourage independence, self-advocacy and freedom for persons with Down syndrome to make their own choices. Help us celebrate our abilities and accomplishments by joining us for this fabulous show of talent!

Join us for this wonderful opportunity for our self-advocates' stars to shine!
Please sign up by calling the DSG office at 214-267-1374 or email Cara Prentice at cprentice.dsg@verizon.net. Include your child's name, age and talent. Siblings are welcome to participate. See you in the spotlight!
