

Cheri Mouden

Cheri Mouden is a consultant at Region 10, specializing in Inclusive Services and Practices. With a background of more than two decades in special education, she is dedicated to educating teachers in the growth of inclusive classrooms and fostering co-teaching partnerships. Cheri's commitment to inclusion belief is not only professional but also personal. Her daughter, Madeline, who is currently enrolled in a program, stands as evidence that this philosophy of inclusion lays the groundwork for educational growth, ultimately leading to post-secondary success. Outside of her professional life, Cheri enjoys a lasting marriage of over 25 years to her high school sweetheart, Hugh, and she is also a proud parent with a son, Graham, actively engaged in Boy Scouts and football.
